This Week's Program Robotic-Assisted Surgery

Dr. Creighton Fiscina
General Surgeon
AdventHealth

Dr. Fiscina will share information about the latest in minimally invasive, robotic-assisted and single-incision surgical techniques and the conditions that can be treated with surgery.

Creighton Fiscina, MD, FACS, is a board-certified general surgeon with advanced skills in minimally invasive, robotic-assisted and single-incision surgical techniques. His surgical experience includes addressing conditions ranging from acid reflux to breast and skin cancers, biliary disease, gallstones, hernias and gastrointestinal issues, as well as thyroid, parathyroid and spleen disorders. His outstanding dedication to his community has been recognized with the Caring Heart Award, and his original research has been published in multiple scientific journals and presented at prestigious medical forums. Dr. Fiscina is an active member of the American College of Surgeons.
